

See a Drug or Alcohol Overdose? Don't be afraid to call 911!

Maryland's NEW Good Samaritan Law PROTECTS YOU

You cannot be arrested, charged, or prosecuted for:

- Possession of a controlled dangerous substance
- Possession or use of drug paraphernalia
- Providing alcohol to minors

Calling 911 WILL NOT affect your PAROLE or PROBATION status.

SAVE A LIFE, CALL 911!

Maryland's law does not protect against:

- arrest for open warrants
- crimes not listed above

For more information on overdose prevention in Maryland, visit:

www.bha.dhmh.maryland.gov/overdose_prevention

Or email Ellen Weber from the UMD Drug Policy Clinic at: eweber@law.umaryland.edu